

Shelda Melancon

Shelda Melancon has been the Chief of the Property Reconciliation Branch since May 2005 and is under the direction of the Associate Chief Financial Officer – Financial Operations/Controller Operations Division. She has eighteen and a half years of experience with USDA's Office of the Chief Financial Officer. In addition to property reconciliation, she has a background in financial reporting, administrative billings and collections, accounting systems, and payroll reconciliation. Prior to joining the government, she performed financial reporting in private industry for five and a half years.